

About David Litt

David Litt is a senior-level marketing, sales and advertising executive with a 25-year track record of success – launching new companies, brands, products and programs from concept through execution. He is one of the few people in business history to be a management team member for:

- * one of the 500 largest companies in the US
- * one of the 500 fastest-growing companies in the US and
- * one of the 500 oldest companies in the US ...

Plus he has owned his own business ... a spa which carried the Purium products. David has spent most of his career in health, wellness and nutrition and is currently the Director of Sales & Marketing for Purium

TPH Purium Link: phporder.com/37230