

Rebecca Campbell, special activist/investigator on the CAFR (Comprehensive Annual Financial Report)

Rebecca Em Campbell is a broad-spectrum activist/artist who, literally and figuratively, wears many hats. She presently resides in Seattle, Washington State, America.

Her areas of activism include all branches of the international truth movement, including 9/11, financial/legal accountability, health freedom, exposing the Gulf and Fukushima geobiocides, chemtrails, military weapons testing and Agenda 21, as well as advocating for nuclear disarmament, an end to all types of wars and human/natural oppression, and extraterrestrial/interrestrial and free zero point energy disclosure.

A political Independent, she also has worked to create forums for civil transpartisan dicussion of salient issues, as well as battered women's, family and homeless shelters, cooperatives, and visionary multimedia works of art melding poetry, drama and music, with an ability to rivet any audience before which she has spoken or performed . Rebecca in the remote past was also a member of an independent esoteric Christian order in which she studied for the priesthood, and has sought throughout her life to apply her intuitive and intellectual insight to being of practical service to the world.

Website: nowisthetime.us